Denim Day

Denim Day, held on a Wednesday in April, commemorates Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Originating from an Italian Supreme Court ruling overturning a rape conviction due to the victim wearing tight jeans, Denim Day emerged as a symbol against victim blaming. In solidarity, women in the Italian Parliament wore jeans the next day. Peace Over Violence initiated the campaign, now a global movement, to challenge misconceptions around sexual violence. By wearing jeans, individuals make a visible protest, advocating for awareness and prevention.
