Film: Honeymoon (2020)

Director: Talya Lavie

Talya Lavie: 'When we watch films and read fairy tales we are made to believe that the ultimate happy ending is a wedding. But in reality your problems or worries don't just disappear when you get married, and you can start fearing what is next. Honeymoon is about what happens after the ultimate happy ending'.

FUN FACTS:

- Honeymoon was based on a short story that Talya Lavie wrote when she was a student in Jerusalem.
- Honeymoon was inspired by classic romantic comedies and there are so many references to them in the film.
- The whole film was shot during the night, and the cast and crew had lunch at 2am.
- Talya Lavie was 8 months pregnant when they were shooting Honeymoon.
- The lead actress Avigail Harari had to wear the wedding dress and was freezing during the shoot as it was winter in Jerusalem.
- Talya played with the idea of bringing beauty and glamour to the most ordinary spots.
- The hardest part was shooting the dance scene outside the prime ministers house. Luckily they missed the period when there were ongoing demonstrations.
