

Musquodoboit Valley Home for Special Care (Braeside)

Braeside is a nursing home located in the Musquodoboit Valley of Nova Scotia with 29 long term care beds.

Clinical care is supported by an interdisciplinary care team and supportive care is provided by Certified Care Assistants.

Code of Ethics

- ❖ Residents have a right to live to and be supported in their maximum level of independence.
- ❖ Residents have a right to autonomy.
- ❖ Residents have a right to choice.
- ❖ Residents have a right to privacy.
- ❖ Residents have a right to be involved in decisions that impact their lives.
- ❖ Residents have a right to confidentiality.
- ❖ Residents have a right to personal and property safety.
- ❖ Residents have the right to live in a home-like environment.
- ❖ Residents have the right to consent to and/or refuse treatment or care.
- ❖ All employees and directors shall engage in honest, legal and ethical conduct.
- ❖ All professionals shall follow their professional ethical code.
- ❖ Residents deserve a high level of care.