

MINISTRIES

We are entering the final months of 2022. As we look to the coming holiday season, I am very pleased to share with you we are planning for trips in 2023. Our desire is to build at least ten teams for the coming year to meet needs in a variety of locations. In Guatemala, we are very excited to be joining Patty Ajanel, our long time friend and primary translator, in her hometown of Xela. We will be partnering with her church and staff to help grow their impact through community work, assisting in their school and discipleship homes, and new ventures into Huehuetenago! We will continue our work alongside Jerusalem Church in Los Pinos as well in the future. It's a time of great anticipation as we prepare to rejoin our brothers and sisters in Guatemala.

In addition to our work in Guatemala, we are building teams for Peru. The work among indigenous people of the high Andes Mountains offers a glimpse into a unique mountain culture similar to Nepal. The communities are remote and in need of the Gospel. In the Cusco area, our partner ministry leads a house church network and a training facility for leaders and a unique life and work program. In the mountain town of Cachora, we work alongside an orphanage under the direction of our partners at Zona Zegura. At the orphanage, teams are involved in a variety of ministry outlets to the children and staff as well as outreach to the community and local school.

We will also be building teams for Slovenia and Mexico in 2023. In Slovenia we are assisting long term missionaries, Wade and Joan Killingsworth, with a church plant in a town outside of the capital city. Slovenia is a small country with major spiritual poverty. Many there have never read a Bible or heard the story of the Gospel. In Mexico we are partnering with Calvary Tizimin in the Yucatán to encourage a young church seeking to reach its community. This little rural town is responding to the kindness of God being demonstrated by a small group of committed believers. Our work is focused on encouraging the church and assisting with outreach events that invite the community to hear and see the Gospel. Added to this list or partners we hope to return with a few teams to Navajo land in New Mexico and work along side Pastor Aaron and the ministries of Tohatchi Baptist Church on the reservation.

These are all exciting opportunities for us. However, without all of you joining us, we can't walk with these brothers and sisters in the field of harvest. Please pray now about joining us in the spring or summer for exciting cross cultural experiences. We would like to fill teams for spring and fall breaks, summer dates beginning at the end of May and a couple of trips next fall in October and November. Join us for a trip and see how God uses you. Send us a request, and we can get you started on an application even before you commit to a trip. Our teams are often mixed teams from a few churches and are wonderful experiences with seasoned missional travelers and brand new commitments to serve for the first time. Join us by adding One Way Ministries and our partners to your prayer list. We need prayer support as we plan and prepare and go into the field to work for the Kingdom! Join us by helping with financial support that provides resources, Bibles, tools for ministry, and travel for leadership. Don't wait, contact us today and let's reach the world together,

As One Way Ministries prepares to step onto the mission field (in another context) again, the Lord is reminding me again how faithful He has been over the past three years. As 2 Timothy 2:13 reminds us, "When we are faithless, He is faithful, for He cannot deny Himself." He was, is, and always will be faithful. We have seen that so clearly recently.

When the pandemic hit full force in March of 2020, our co-op stopped meeting in person, all sports were dismissed, and mission trips came to a grinding halt. Our financial resources dried up quickly, and JT sought work in the remodeling business as that's where his physical skill set lies. I picked up several students to tutor, and my ACT tutoring business took off. In the midst of a trying time, God still provided work to sustain us.

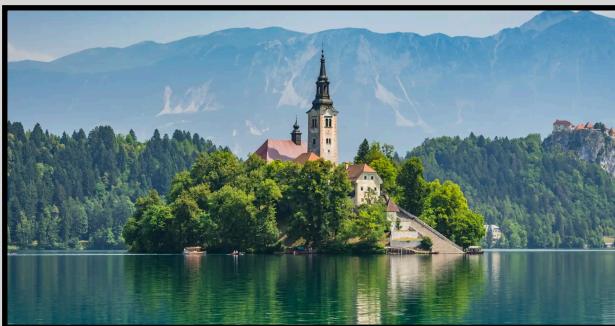

Many other negatives were clearly used by the Lord to show us His goodness. Our kids were all under one roof as they set up a tent in the great room and used the time together for lots of fun and bonding. We reverted back to the early days of marriage and got creative with menus, buying groceries, and how to save money. We read more and reached out more to check on others. We grew closer to some of our neighbors!

The Lord has a beautiful way of using trials and adversity to draw us close to Him. We realize what's important, and what's not. He reminds us of His goodness, graciousness, and generosity at every turn. And our job? To walk in complete trust of His plan, knowing that He is working for our good and His great glory. We realize that His ultimate plan is best, and we are grateful for the ways He chooses to use people during those tough times.

Today, let us all choose joy and gratitude for Who He is. He loves us and wants us to serve Him wholeheartedly. He desires a relationship with us that molds us into people sold out for the Gospel of Christ. Look to Him and seek Him, knowing that He loves you more than you or I can imagine!
