

MINISTRIES

Every one of us has the same amount of time each day. The twenty-four hours we are given tick by with the same speed for every individual on the face of this planet. As each of us evaluates the day ahead of us and reflects on the day behind, we have decisions to make. We decide how we are going to use the minutes we have to grow, improve, expand and invest in the opportunities provided. Perhaps we choose to spend our time simply doing those things we enjoy for fun and hope to be happy at the end of the day?

As we re-engage the world after the pandemic, the needs that we knew were there before we stopped traveling still remain. The people in communities without the saving knowledge of the Gospel are still outnumbering those inside a growing church following Jesus with their lives. The numbers of unreached and unengaged people groups remain overwhelmingly high in our new day of missional work. So, what do we do? We have to get back to going to the nations and reaching the world with the Gospel message. The opportunity to go to people groups with this amazing truth is wide open in many places around the world. In particular, there are many places within this hemisphere that are ready for us to return and help them reach their communities.

In an effort to re-engage the world, we all need to re-organize our own priorities for time. Many of us have gotten back to the annual vacation. Most of us have gotten back to visiting family and celebrating holidays and birthdays with family and friends. All of us have re-engaged the world around us daily as we live our lives in our communities. So, is it possible that we need to adjust our plans a bit and re-commit to investing time in another context reaching the world with the Gospel? Yes - the answer is a resounding yes!

In 2024 we have the opportunity to get back on the field with our brothers and sisters in Guatemala, Mexico, Peru, and Slovenia. Each of these locations have at least two weeks that they are asking for a team. Guatemala offers to us three locations with at least two weeks in each location. Peru is open to three weeks of teams plus three locations that could easily include additional weeks with some awesome focused ministry. So, how join us in 2024 to re-engage the world and invest some time in Kingdom work.

Join an existing team or form one on your own. However you do it, let's get back to the reaching of the world and teaching of the Word in other contexts as we PRAY, GIVE, and GO!

New Website

The new website, www.1wayministries.org, is up and running! Trip locations and dates, photos, forms, and payments are all available on the new site. In addition, archived newsletters can be read and NEW stories from the mission field will be uploaded over time. We would love to have your snapshot from a particular trip and feature your story of how God worked in your life. Send your stories to outreach@1wayministries.org.

In the coming months, look for One Way newsletters in your inbox as we are transitioning to an online platform to streamline our efforts. If you would like to change your email address with us, please contact sheryl@1wayministries.org. The full transition to online communication will occur on December 31st of this year.
