A Salumeria in North Carolina?

From the earliest days, Italian culture and tradition were integral to my family's daily life. As the child of Italian immigrants, I grew up surrounded by the joys of authentic Italian cuisine, with my parents' restaurants and delis on Long Island serving as my culinary training ground.

Years later, I took those cherished lessons and brought them to North Carolina, where my wife Laura and I founded Giacomo's Italian Market in 1999. Recognizing an even greater need, we soon established the San Giuseppe Salami Company, named after the village where my mother was raised.

Today, we are proud to continue the time-honored traditions of our ancestors by crafting each product by hand with the utmost care and attention to quality. We use only locally sourced pork raised on family farms, in our efforts to bring the flavors of Italy to families' tables.

Even as our small business has grown, our mission remains unchanged: to provide authentic, high-quality products that you can trust. From our family to yours, we hope you'll join us in celebrating the rich culinary heritage passed down through generations.

Buon Appetito —

Seafood & Chorizo Paella

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 6 oz San Giuseppe Aged Spanish Chorizo, sliced into coins or half-moons
- 1 small onion, finely diced
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 red bell pepper, diced
- 1½ cups bomba rice (or short-grain paella rice)
- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- ½ tsp sweet paprika

- ½ tsp saffron threads, bloomed in 2 tbsp warm stock
- 4 cups seafood stock, warmed
- 1 cup crushed or grated tomato
- Kosher salt, to taste
- 8 large shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 8–10 mussels, scrubbed and debearded
- 6 oz calamari, cleaned and sliced into rings

Instructions

1. Heat olive oil in a wide paella pan or large shallow skillet over medium heat. Add San Giuseppe Aged Spanish Chorizo and cook until the fat renders and the edges begin to crisp. Remove chorizo and set aside, leaving the flavorful oil in the pan.
2. Add onion and bell pepper to the pan and sauté until softened, about 5 minutes. Stir in garlic and cook until fragrant. Add crushed tomato and cook until thick and jammy, about 5–7 minutes.
3. Stir in the rice, smoked paprika, sweet paprika, and saffron (with its liquid). Cook for 1–2 minutes, coating the rice in the sofrito and chorizo-infused oil.
4. Pour in the warm seafood stock and season lightly with salt. Stir once to distribute evenly, then nestle the cooked chorizo back into the pan. Bring to a gentle simmer and do not stir from this point on. Cook for about 10 minutes.
5. Arrange shrimp, mussels, and calamari on top of the rice. Continue cooking until the rice is tender, the seafood is cooked through, and the mussels have opened, about 8–10 minutes.
6. Increase heat slightly for the last 1–2 minutes to form a crisp layer on the bottom (listen for a gentle crackle—don't let it burn).
7. Remove from heat, cover loosely, and let rest for 5 minutes. Finish with fresh parsley and lemon wedges.

Creamy Cajun Andouille Pasta

Ingredients

- 12 oz pasta (penne, rigatoni, or fettuccine work great)
- 12 oz andouille sausage, sliced into coins
- 2 tbsp olive oil or butter
- 1 small onion, diced
- 1 red bell pepper, sliced
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1–1½ tbsp Cajun seasoning (adjust to heat preference)

- ½ tsp smoked paprika (optional but excellent)
- 1 cup heavy cream
- ½ cup chicken broth (or pasta water)
- ½ cup grated Parmesan
- Salt & black pepper, to taste
- Crushed red pepper flakes (optional)
- Fresh parsley or green onions, chopped

Instructions

1. Boil in well-salted water until al dente. Reserve ½ cup pasta water, then drain.
2. Heat olive oil or butter in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add the sliced andouille and cook until nicely browned on both sides. Remove and set aside.
3. In the same skillet, add onion and bell pepper. Sauté 3–4 minutes until softened. Add garlic, Cajun seasoning, and smoked paprika. Stir for about 30 seconds until fragrant.
4. Pour in chicken broth and scrape up all the good bits. Reduce slightly, then add heavy cream. Simmer 3–5 minutes until thickened.
5. Add the browned andouille back in, then toss in the pasta. Stir to coat everything, adding reserved pasta water if needed for a silkier sauce.
6. Stir in Parmesan, season with salt, pepper, and red pepper flakes to taste.
7. Finish with fresh parsley or green onions. Serve hot with extra Parm on top.
