HUNT for the LOST TREASURE of COWETA is sponsored by the Moreland Cultural Arts Alliance, Inc. a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to protect, foster, and promote the cultural arts and heritage of the Moreland community and to celebrate the writing of Erskine Caldwell and Lewis Grizzard.

6. I'm a fraction of my former self. I supported a heavy load. More than a hundred years ago, many fought over me. Men in boots and sweaty overalls as well as ladies in flowing gowns have conducted their affairs with me. Some followed an 'alphabet' route when they made tracks to find me. What am I?

ANSWER
NEWMAN HISTORIC TRAIN DEPOT

7. Once upon a time long ago, in a place with fertile fields, I turned into something new and very beautiful. Imagination and creativity became my best friends. I took front stage. Walt Disney noticed me. What am I?

ANSWER
DUNAWAY GARDENS

8. At first, boys rang my bell. Eventually, many history lovers found me inviting. Now many children have loads of fun with me. I'm happy to share my old toys with my kid friends. What was I named first?

ANSWER
THE MALE ACADEMY

9. We are all over our county! Some fight with us. We have our limits. We are proud to protect. We like keeping up appearances. Memories are precious to us. Who are we; what are all our individual names? (You may need extra space for this answer.)

ANSWER
NATIONAL REGISTER
HISTORIC DISTRICTS*

10. Travel just north of St. Charles to find me. In my new home, I can tell you tales in more than forty languages. My beginnings were humble and filled with prayer. Now I have more beautiful green space around me. What am I?

ANSWER
THE LITTLE MANSE:
Birthplace & Museum of Erskine Caldwell

Bonus We are little; we are clothed in green like the men who carried us. We have big names. Who are we and what are our names?
