QUOTE OF THE MONTH

“We do hereby dedicate this land and ourselves to reach the people within these shores with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to raise up godly generations after us, and with these generations, take the Kingdom of God to all the earth. May this covenant of dedication remain to all generations as long as the earth remains, and may this land, along with England, be Evangelist to the world. May all who see this Cross remember what we have done here, and may those, who come here to inhabit, join us in this covenant and in this noblest work that the Holy Scriptures may be fulfilled. From these very shores, the gospel shall go forth, not only to this New World, but the entire world.”

Robert Hunt at Cape Henry, 29 Apr 1607

INSPIRATION

“All the ends of the world shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before Thee. For the Kingdom is the Lord’s, and He ruleth among the nations”

Psalms 22: 27-28

STATEMENT FROM THE BOARD

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

BY LARRY WHITELEY

GOD BLESS AMERICA

In the opening line of the song “God Bless America” it says, “God bless America land that I love.” He created a lot of land for us to love.

Some of your most pleasant memories probably happened outdoors at family picnics, vacations across the country, a fishing or hunting trip, that once-in-a-lifetime camping adventure, a hike up a mountain, a walk down a country road, on your tractor putting up hay, working in your garden or, just sitting in your yard watching the wildlife.

As Americans, God blessed us with abundant natural resources. When Europeans came here, they marveled over the abundance of wildlife and all the places we are able to go and enjoy God’s great outdoors.

Most surprising to them was the availability of these resources to the ordinary man. In Europe and most of the world, only the privileged can walk to a stream and catch a trout, hunt pheasant, or pitch a tent in front of a magnificent view.

We Americans take for granted our beautiful lakes, streams, and forests. Thankfully our forbearers knew the value of the purple mountain’s majesty and the fruited plains. They made natural resources the focus of their songs and lives.

The cost is either free or minimal. The benefits are many. When you celebrate Independence Day this month, be thankful to God for the great outdoors he created and the freedom we have to enjoy it all. The outdoors is good for your body and good for your soul.

As the last line from the song says, “From the mountains to the prairies to the oceans white with foam. God bless America, my home sweet home.”

POLICY RE: DOGS

All dogs must be on a leash and owner must hold leash while dog is in the church facilities. No dogs are allowed near food, kitchens, or food lines.

POWERFUL QUOTES FROM UNITED STATES PRESIDENTS

As we prepare to celebrate Independence Day, let's remember the words of our Founding Fathers;

"The propitious smiles of Heaven can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right, which heaven itself has ordained."

George Washington

"We recognize no sovereign but God, and no king but Jesus!"

John Adams

"The reason that Christianity is the best friend of government is because Christianity is the only religion that changes the heart."

Thomas Jefferson

"We have staked the whole future of American civilization not on the power of government, far from it. We have staked the whole of our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves according to the commandments of God. The future and success of America are not in this Constitution, but in the laws of God upon which this Constitution is founded."

James Madison

"Before any man can be considered as a member of civil society, he must be considered as a subject of the Governor of the Universe. And to the same Divine Author of every good and perfect gift we are indebted for all those privileges and advantages, religious as well as civil, which are so richly enjoyed in this favored land."

James Monroe

"The Bible is the first and almost the only book deserving of universal attention."

John Quincy Adams

"The highest glory of the American Revolution was this: it connected in one indissoluble bond the principles of civil government with the principles of Christianity."

John Quincy Adams

"Before any man can be considered as a member of civil society, he must be considered as a subject of the Governor of the Universe. And to the same Divine Author of every good and perfect gift we are indebted for all those privileges and advantages, religious as well as civil, which are so richly enjoyed in this favored land."

James Monroe

"If we ever forget that we are one nation under God, then we will be a nation gone under."

Ronald Reagan

"All must admit that the reception of the teachings of Christ results in the purest patriotism, in the most scrupulous fidelity to public trust, and in the best type of citizenship."
