3 He woke up, the room was bare, he didn't see her anywhere  He told himself he didn't care, through the window open wide  Felt the emptiness inside to which he just could not relate  Blame it on a simple twist of fate 4 A saxophone someplace far off played as she walked along the  arcade  As the light bust through a beat-up shade back where he was  wakin' up	She dropped a coin into the cup   -----    -----3-    -----2---    -2-3h4-----    -----  of the blind man at the gate  And forgot about a simple twist of fate Solo Guitar/Bass/Piano

5 He hears the ticking of the clock  and walks along with a parrot that talks  Heads down to the waterfront docks  where the sailors all come in  Maybe she'll pick him out again,  how long must he wait  Once more for that simple twist of fate	6 People tell me it's a sin  to know and fee  I too much within  All I know she was my twin,  but I broke the ring  She was born in the spring,  but I was born too late  Blame it on a simple twist of fate
