“So Long” From Your Editor. It is with regret and great reluctance that I announce my resignation as editor of the “O-Gram.” I am 87 years of age and my disability is not getting any better. Unlike wine and some cheeses, age has not improved me. The most important factor in my decision is that I’ve run out of ideas. In most issues, we featured maintenance tips, periodic reminders of Oceans Grand “do’s and dont’s,” good neighbor recognition, financial reports, future activities and other newsworthy items. We had a lot of help with our owner members providing information and interesting items. Now that has sort of dried up. I believe I still have my sense of humor but I’ve run out of jokes that can be printed for polite company.

With the support and assistance of Pam, our then CAM, the O-Gram was first published in January 2015. Since then we have published 47 issues. I really appreciate the kind words, the encouragement and the help provided by our readers. Since the Board of Directors designated the O-Gram as an official publication of the Oceans Grand Owners Association, Incorporated, I trust they will designate an editor to replace me. I pledge my assistance to the new editor in whatever way I may help.

Thanks again.
