The Fine Print

Food Trucks are responsible for providing their own personnel, additional tables and chairs as space allows (we have tables and chairs on the patio for attendees), all needed equipment, and signage.

Food Trucks are responsible for keeping their site clean during the event and leaving their site in the same or better condition. Dispose of all fats and oils in proper containers and remove from the event site – NO pouring grease in the woods. Please break down all boxes and bag all waste during and after the event.

Food Trucks are required to have up-to-date permits, licenses, and insurance as required by Roanoke County.

NO generators during the Sunday service (approximately 11:00am-12:00pm) – join us! Food Truck hours are 11:00am-5:30pm on Saturday and 12:30pm-4:30pm on Sunday. Hours are negotiable. Food Trucks may be left on the premises overnight on Saturday.

By signing this application you agree to abide by the terms and conditions set forth herein. Unity of Roanoke Valley will endeavor to provide basic security during the Body Mind Spirit Fest (BMSF), but we are not liable for lost, damaged or stolen goods, equipment, or personal property. Food Trucks bear the risk of loss through the cancellation or termination of the BMSF. In the event that any outside force beyond our control causes the cancellation of the BMSF, or prevents it from taking place or continuing, such as but not limited to: acts of God, national or global health crises, acts of civil disobedience, terrorism, acts of war or work stoppage; Unity of Roanoke Valley reserves the right to retain payments made by the Food Trucks to defray expenses and losses. Unity of Roanoke Valley and BMSF reserves the right to use any photographs/video taken at the Body Mind Spirit Fest, without the expressed written permission of those included within the photographs/video. Unity of Roanoke Valley and BMSF may use the photographs/video in publications or other media material including, but not limited to: brochures, invitations, books, newspapers, magazines, television, websites, etc. Food Truck goods, equipment, and personal property may not be left on Unity of Roanoke Valley property once the event ends - ALL Food Truck items must be removed at the end of the event. Thank you, you're awesome!
