

WESTERN ORGANIC DAIRY PRODUCERS
ALLIANCE

5 REASONS WHY YOU Should Attend THE WODPA CONFERENCE

- 1. To network! People want to see you too! Build your network by meeting with like-minded people, industry peers, and reconnect with those you haven't seen in a while. Everyone loves to hear what's happening on other farms. Come share your ideas and experiences with others.
- 2. The Location! We have the unique opportunity to meet at the Chico State University Farm and Organic Dairy. Check out what they're doing with tours and product demonstrations.
- 3. Expand your knowledge! Find solutions to problems you are facing or consider new opportunities for your operation.
- 4. The Tales and Tidbits! We learn something everywhere we go. Not only does the conference have exciting speakers to learn from but think of all those little things you learn along the way from other producers or vendors.
- 5. The Fun Factor! This is a perfect reason to get off the farm. Take advantage of the energy in the room and the opportunity to reconnect or make new connections.
