Style is a way to say who you are without having to speak"

As a Pisces my style changes with my many moods! I enjoy playing with several styles to express the many facets of my soul. One thing remains consistent and that is intention and comfort...here are a few of my current fall favorites.

Autumn leaves begin to fall and this serpent pendant by Bvlgari invokes the exact energy I'm wishing to harness this time of year. I'll add it to my everyday jewelry lineup as a reminder to shed what no longer serves me. www.bulgari.com

We're all getting ready for cozy nights by the fire. I just incorporated these soft chic stylish interlude chairs that work beautifully with the modern tribal feel of our sitting room. www.interludehome.com

I'm a hat girl. Every season, every occasion calls for a good hat. Lovely bird is a go to for me! You can even add your initials for that custom touch. www.shoplovelybird.com

Mother Nature is always a bit confused this time of year. Layering and comfort is key. JJwinks designs sets that go from the bedroom and beyond. Every option has a duster to match! PS: This brand allows you to ditch the bra! Hallelujah!! www.JJwinks.com

The energy of your space is everything! Incorporating meaningful art is key to touching the soul of all who enter. My latest piece is by doritschwartzsculpture.com My heart skipped a beat for the use of natural wood and crystals. www.doritschwartzsculptor.com
