

BUSINESS LAW ATTORNEY IN HOUSTON, TEXAS

When you need a commercial transaction attorney experienced in contracts, real estate, corporate, business or construction transactions, turn to the Law Office of Mark A Sanders, P.C. in Houston, Texas. Mark will work toward the best outcome in your business transaction. He'll make sure every step he takes is in your best interest. His extensive experience with a vast array of contract and transactional matters cases will give you the protection, direction and advise you need.

Business disputes can quickly turn complicated and confrontational and can affect the professional and personal lives of everyone involved. Throughout this difficult and sensitive process, you want to make sure that your best interests are pursued vigorously. You will receive a candid and complete assessment of your case from Mark Sanders.

Protect yourself during business, corporate, real estate or construction matters by hiring an effective and knowledgeable attorney today.

There are countless rules and regulations surrounding business ownership, some that you may not have even heard of. Instead of making the costly mistake of trying to draft contracts or settle disputes alone, get help from the business law attorneys at the Law Office of Mark A. Sanders, P.C. in Houston, Texas. Mark and Sheri Sanders have been practicing law for more than three decades and can help you navigate the complexities of owning a company. From mergers to contract design for new positions, they can give you the legal guidance you need to propel your business forward.

Don't Let Confusion Delay Your Business Goals

Whether you're embroiled in a contract dispute or ready to sell your company, the business law attorneys at the Law Office of Mark A. Sanders, P.C. can guide you through the process. Mark and Sheri Sanders can help you with a variety of corporate law matters involving:

- Selling or Buying a business or real estate
- Buying a business that you know you can grow
- Business disputes of all shapes and sizes
- Entity formation documents and documents that meet the needs of your business