

STUDENT THREATS POLICY

What constitutes a THREAT?

Whenever an individual believes that his/her personal safety has been put in jeopardy or challenged, a threat has occurred. It may be verbal, written, or done through use of technology.

Once a threat is reported or discovered, school administration will evaluate the threat and take action, as necessary. If the evaluation finds that a threat took place, disciplinary action will occur, including, but not limited to:

-suspension

-expulsion

-referral to local law enforcement

Additionally:

A. The parent/guardian of the student who has made the threat shall be notified immediately.

B. Any adult or the parent/guardian of any students who have been verbally mentioned as potential victims or listed in writing as potential victims shall be notified immediately.

C. Counseling shall be made available to children who are victims of the threatening behavior or who observed the threatening behavior if it is determined that counseling is needed and parental permission is granted.
