Welcome

Greetings Art Lover,

Welcome to the 13th edition of the Michigan Art Guide. Due to the huge interest in the guide we expect it to be a busy year for our galleries, fairs and artists. We hope you will use this year's guide to start planning your visits, and continue to support these local businesses. When you stop by, be sure to let them know you saw their listing or ad here so they know their advertising dollars are effective. It is a good idea to call ahead or check their website for their current hours.

We work hard to make the guide functional and easy-to-use, with all of the information carefully organized and color-coded so you can easily find what you want.

We hope you enjoy the 13th annual edition of the Michigan Art Guide and enjoy an art filled year.

If you head south, check out our Florida Art Guide. Just like the Michigan Art Guide, you will find accurate listings of galleries, fairs, and artists throughout the state. Safe travels!

Vicki

On the Cover

Leaving Only Footprints by Debra Reid Jenkins

I began my career as a full-time professional artist with training in formal portraiture. My figurative work led to many years working as an illustrator for children's books and magazines. During this time I discovered plein air painting and fell in love with the water and shoreline of Lake Michigan. My maritime paintings have been featured in many travelling museum exhibitions and are in several private collections. Always interested in abstraction as well as realism, prior to the pandemic I started exploring cold wax/oil medium in my abstract works. Curiosity and love of learning are the driving force in all of my artistic pursuits.

You can help us!

Do you know of an art gallery or juried art fair in your area that does not appear in this guide? Let us know so we can contact them about being listed in next year's guide. Thanks! listings@MichiganArtGuide.com

Why Buy Art?

No one needs art, right? Art is not necessary to sustain life, like food is. It's probably not as vital as money, shelter or a job. But beyond these basic requirements, art may be right up there with other items in the "things that make life worth living" category.

We'd like to propose that art may be indispensable for many people who want to live fulfilling, well-balanced lives. A work of particular beauty or mystery can have a powerful effect on us. It can alter our mindset, slow us down, change our perspective or raise our spirits.

Need more reasons? Art that you feel a connection with can...

- transport you to other places
- add color to your room and your life
- pique your curiosity
- serve as a focal point
- reflect your enduring values
- bring back special memories
- be a solid investment
- inspire your own creativity
- provide a sense of welcome & warmth
- visually express your tastes and values
- captivate and intrigue you
- enhance your architecture and balance a room
- help you see and think more clearly
- reward creative, hard-working artists
- affect you subliminally
- bring beauty, joy and conversation into your life
- make a great gift that keeps on giving
- change your attitude for the better
- speak to what you love most
- be a very important part of our human experience

Support Your Local Artists

... and art galleries. Purchasing art from artists and galleries in Michigan supports the regional economy. It's a lot like a CSA (community supported agriculture) but for art. CSA can also stand for "community supported art," you know.
