

Becky Esker, CPO®
Owner

Project Manager

Author, Speaker, Coach

Becky holds her designation as a Certified Professional Organizer (CPO®), as well as Certificates of Study in Chronic Disorganization and Basic ADD Issues with the CD client. She graduated from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale with a Bachelors of Science Degree in Paralegal Studies.

Becky is the author of the book 2-Minute Organizing Miracles and was featured as an organizing expert on TLC's Hoarding: Buried Alive. Becky frequently appears on local television, news and radio stations.

Becky has recognition as a national conference speaker for the National Attention Deficit Disorder Association, National Association of Professional Organizers Midwest, The Future Business Leaders of America, and Chicago Home School Expo.

She is a member of The National Association of Productivity & Organizing Professionals, Cedar Rapids & Johnson County Elderly Consortiums, and is a 2009 Alumni of the Leadership for Five Seasons Program.

Becky lives in Cedar Rapids Iowa with her husband Don and their dogs Gabby and Sadie. They have two children Madison and Blake, both students at ISU and UNI.

