Presidents Letter

President's message April 2023

March is behind us. I hope it stops raining soon – everything is waterlogged. March has been very busy, everything from the Fish and Game classes to weddings, birthday parties, Umpire classes, Saint Patrick's Day meal, Taco Tuesday and much more.

April brings three wakes and one wedding. (The wedding came from The Woman's Club of Lodi because they had a roof collapse due to the rain. I have thanked them for the referral.)

Two of our members have passed away, Michael Wunderlick and Jim Carr. Jim's Celebration of life will be on April 22 at the club. Thanks to all the people who helped with the Saint Patrick's Day luncheon and the Taco Tuesday meals.

We are still looking for member to cook for Friday Lunches, and General Meeting meals. If you can't cook, consider donating to the meal, baking, or buying a desert to share. Work in the kitchen helping put the meal together, serving the meal or doing the dishes. Support you club. Hope to see you at the General Meeting April 13.

Linda Black
President

Fishing Report

Updated March 27, 2023

DELTA, Sacramento Side — The best and only largemouth bass action has been occurring in the north Delta as the largemouths are staging outside of the spawning grounds. The bass are found in the troughs from 4 to 6 feet of water with spinnerbaits or chatterbaits, but the cold water is keeping them from moving onto their beds. Sturgeon fishing remains solid in Suisun Bay with cured salmon roe or lamprey eel despite the cold water temperatures. The sturgeon bite is expected to break out once the water warms up a few degrees.

DELTA, San Joaquin side — Just as the water was starting to clear up, the recent inflow from the storms is starting to murk up the main river channel once again. Bass fishing was showing signs of life, but the cold and off-color water require noise, scent, and vibration such as spinnerbaits in chartreuse or white with Magnum blades. Striped bass are moving into the Delta, and with the high water, it will be outstanding within a few weeks.
