Presidents Letter

November 2023

Fall is here at last. Thanksgiving is just around the corner and then Christmas.

Its time to elect a new board members for 2024. All of you who have a lot of ideas should step up and run for the board. We need new blood and new ideas. You need to be a member for a year before you can run. See the bartender for the applications.

I attended the kids Halloween Party on Sunday. The kids were having a good time. The hall looked very spooky. They served food and had different activities for the kids. I want to thank those that helped put the event on. Robin Bryson, Kay Johnston, Don Smith, Stu & Val Woodward's, Don & Beth Weaver, and David Burgelene. After the bills were paid the club made $107.

A big thank you goes to the Taco Tuesday crew, Don Smith, and Robin Bryson his helper. When Robin is not available Linda Handle and Mary Natali help. We will not have Taco Tuesday for the rest of the year due to the holidays.

The boat parade will be on December 4th, 2023. Chuck Lawrence has agreed to make soup again. We will need more help. Look for the sign-up sheet at the bar. Bring the family and enjoy the Boat Parade and a good meal.

Linda Black
President

Fishing Report

California Delta:

DELTA, San Joaquin side — Striped bass remain mostly absent as they have yet to migrate en masse from San Francisco Bay. There are a few scattered schools from the Antioch Bridge up to Prisoner's Point, but trollers and lure casters are having to hunt around for the schools. Largemouth bass is improving, but it is far from normal with limits in the 13-pound range being the rule as finding largemouths over 3 pounds has been a challenge. The key is working current adjacent to weed lines, tules, or rocks with spinnerbaits, ima Squarebills in crawdad or bluegill, or Senkos. There are large schools of small shad in the river, but the water hasn't cooled enough to switch over to shad-patterned artificials. \ Fresh shad is back in area bait shops, but the price has risen to $15/pound in some shops.
