

Introduction of the BioSand Water Filter
Eastern Cape Province, South Africa
Summer 2007 – A Photo Essay

David H. Manz, Ph.D., P. Eng., P. Ag.

Slide 1

The concrete household BioSand Water Filters were introduced to the Eastern Cape Province community of Lower Ntlaza, Eastern Cape Appropriate Technology Unit, King Hintsas FET and King Sabada Dalinyebo FET in the summer of 2007 as part of a CIDA funded program implemented through Lethbridge Community College, Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada.

Part 1

Training of the trainers.

750 ml

HOUSEHOLD BLEACH
ACT29GNS29/28144/072/129
ACTIVE INGREDIENT
SODIUM HYPOCHLORITE
3,5% m/v WHEN PACKED

Part 2
Training the community.
Lower Ntlaza

EASTERN CA
Tel: (047) 532 460
Fax: (047) 532 431

Course Participants

Eastern Cape Appropriate Technology

Unit - ECATU

- Dideka Josephine Mbambisa
- Henry Letsotso
- Lungiswa Goya
- Monwabisi Mdingi

Further Education Training (FET) Colleges

- Kahla Vuyisa, King Hintsa
- Stembele Kope, King Sabata Delandyebo

Lower Ntlaza

- Luther Muela Nongena (Tolo)
- Lulama Selane
- Pumzo Mgqukuza
- Nokwakha Irene Mqoqi
- Lubabalo Majeke
- Khanyisa Madabane
- Xolile Mgqukuza
- Mandisa Madabane
- Novumile Mtshoniseni
- Patronella Pama
- Noluvo Nongena
- Nosabelo Nkwenkwe
- Nyameka Majeke
- Sicelo Macingwane

Thanks to my Canadian helpers!

Great Project! Good Luck!

