Dog Days Las Vegas General Policies

1. No chain, choke, or shock collars allowed in daycare.
2. All dogs staying for boarding must bring their own food for duration of stay to avoid additional fees.
3. In order to maintain the safest playgroups possible Dog Days Las Vegas will have to enforce certain play etiquette. Therefore, we must occasionally pull dogs for timeout.
4. If a dog shows aggression towards a handler, the staff will evaluate whether he/she will be dismissed from daycare.
5. Daycare and sleepovers guest must be picked up by close of business. Early drop off can be arranged.
6. Dog Days Las Vegas is not responsible for any missing, misplaced, lost personal pet items. Parents are encouraged to only bring food when boarding; Dog Days Las Vegas has beds, blankets, bowls, toys etc. available for all boarders.
7. Owners are aware that there are certain risks associated with allowing your dog to play with other dogs. When dogs play together the following are possibilities; bites, punctures, scratches, broken bone/ nails, bruises, transmission of disease, etc. All owners are responsible for their own pet.
8. Although Dog Days does not require the canine flu vaccine, we do highly recommend it.
9. Grooming prices quoted on the phone are estimates only. The groomer will be able to give you an exact price once pup has been seen.
10. At times, we use the pools in our daycare for the large dog side only. If you prefer your pup not to play in the pools, please make sure to discuss that with the staff.
11. You hereby release Dog Days Las Vegas, its agents, officers, subcontractors, and employees, animal owners, customers and potential customers of Dog Days Las Vegas from any and all liabilities for injuries to yourself, your pets, or your property, which arise in any way out of services provided by or as a consequence of your association with Dog Days Las Vegas. You understand that there are certain risks involved with pet ownership, training, and care including, but not limited to, fights, bites, and transmission of disease. By your signature below, you acknowledge and accept responsibility for these and all other risks and release Dog Days Las Vegas from any injuries that might occur, no matter the cause, (Including illness that would have normally occurred had the pet not been at Dog Days.) This agreement lasts the entire relationship between you and Dog Days Las Vegas. All answers on this sheet are accurate to the best of your knowledge.

I have read and understand all of the above policies and understand no exceptions can be made.

FREE RANGE DOG CARE AGREEMENT

I, _____, understand that Dog Days Las Vegas has relied upon my representation that my dog is in good health and has not injured or shown aggression or threatening behavior to any person or dog in admitting my dog for services at their facility. I further understand that there are risks associated with group socialization of dogs. I agree that the benefits outweigh the risks and that I accept the risks. I desire a socialized environment for my dog while attending services provided by Dog Days Las Vegas. I understand the while the socialization and play is closely and carefully monitored by Dog Days Las Vegas staff to prevent injury, it is still possible that during the course of normal play my dog may receive minor nicks, scratches or punctures from roughhousing with other dogs. Any injuries to my dog will be pointed out by staff upon pick up.

MEDICAL RELEASE REQUIRED

Dog Days Las Vegas highest importance is the wellbeing of your dog. Insuring your pet remains safe and well cared for is our first responsibility and as such we take it very seriously. We do our best to have our dog parent’s screen for pre-existing conditions, and maintain a hygienic facility, but some factors may be beyond our control. Parents please note, although your dogs have Bordetella vaccine, they may still be at risk of contracting “kennel cough” since it is a highly contagious airborne infection. If in our judgment your pet requires medical care and we are unable to reach you, please sign below granting permission for us to obtain medical care for your pet.

“I give permission for Dog Days Las Vegas to seek medical attention for my pet if they find it necessary, even if they are unable to reach me. I understand that I am solely responsible for the payment of all medical bills for my pet. I release Dog Days Las Vegas, it’s owners and employees of and from any and all responsibility for, or claims, damages, debts, arising out of or related to such medical care. This includes, but not limited to transportation to/from the vet clinic that we use for injuries. For medical issues that are chronic in nature, Dog Days Las Vegas will attempt to use my current vet if possible, Vet travel expenses will be incurred.”

CREDIT/DEBIT CARD AUTHORIZATION REQUIRED

Payment is due in full upon pickup of your dog. In the event that the client is not present upon pickup of their dog, Dog Days Las Vegas has authorization to charge the card on file for the amount owed for services in its entirety. Dog Days Las Vegas does not participate in payment after the fact, meaning payment once the dog owner is available to come in to the location to pay at a later date than when the dog leaves the building. This contract allows Dog Days Las Vegas to dispute any claims brought about by the client for unauthorized charge to the credit card on file or any attempt at a "chargeback" via the client's credit card company. The client understands that the Electronic Signature in Global and National Commerce Act states that the client does not need to provide a wet signature in order to authorize a payment. By signing this contract, the client acknowledges that they authorize any charges to the credit card on file for payment in full for services rendered; this includes vet bills and transportations fees.
