About Us:

The Inn of the Patriots was opened in 2008, by Chef Marti and his wife, Chef Stormy, (who are both disabled veterans), while they were newlyweds. Struggling as the economic holocaust began with recession, but with a dream, they opened one room to rent with a shared bath ~ always with an eye to the future. By 2011, the Inn had five rooms and four and ½ baths. Our rooms are painted in historical colors, and we continue to upgrade the furnishings in our rooms with a refresh of $40,000.00 in 2012.

Our precious daughter, Rania Isabella, joined our loving family September 30, 2010, and has enriched and blessed our lives in countless ways. Always the charmer, she delights in entertaining the guests and meeting all the special people that come into our lives.

We are always working to improve your stay while maintaining our cozy, fun, homey atmosphere that has garnered us numerous awards, including the 2009 and 2010 Best Bed and Breakfast In The World for History, 2011 Best in the South and 2012 Zagat 27 score.

We have a local team who is committed to providing you the BEST possible stay and the highest quality of service.

Thank you for your visit to our loving home. It is a great pleasure to serve you in this home away from home. We hope your stay here was delightful and enjoyable. We hope to see you again soon.

Best Wishes for a vibrant and loving journey,

Chefs Marti, Stormy, Kim, Johnsie and Amanda
