MEDIA ADVISORY

FILMING OF AMERICAN REVOLUTIONARY WAR LIVING HISTORY CENTER (ARWLHC) FOR TV SHOW SERIES, “GOD, GUNS AND AMERICAN FREEDOM,” DURING GATEWAY FESTIVAL IN KINGS MOUNTAIN, NC

For release on October 2, 2009

(Kings Mountain, October 1, 2009) The television series, “God, Guns and American Freedom,” will film its next episode at the Annual Kings Mountain Gateway Festival, October 10, 2009. From 10:00 am to 6 pm the mega-festival will churn full tilt and an afternoon cannon duel will be shot by the production company, NewRMedia for its third episode airing in November on CN2 Extra in York, Chester and Lancaster counties, SC.

This years skirmish is named, “Caught in the Middle,” and will feature reenactors manning full-sized, death-spewing, black-powder and fire, cannons brought together by the American Revolutionary War Living History Center (ARWLHC) and Experience (www.revwarexperience.com). Colonel Frederick Hambright (Hambrecht), Major William Chronicle and the father of Davy Crockett – John Crockett will be filmed for the show. Crockett fought at the great battle of King’s Mountain. Also, the simple man or, “common man,” with no name other than, “Jamie,” will be filmed and offer his words of fighting for the King and Queen against liars and, “supposed patriots.”

The American Revolutionary War Living History Center (ARWLHC) & Experience is an organization of reenactors, advisory board members from industry and academia in the Kings Mountain battle site region straddling two states. They are presently working on the building of a new resort attraction which will feature battles, log cabins, the John Adams Restaurant and Tavern, the Nature & Earth Spa, horse riding and the capability for guests to enter into the colonial war, fully dressed, and fight or command - up to the level of General. Their construction headquarters and base camp is located at The Inn of the Patriots Bed and Breakfast Hotel, in Grover, NC.

NewRMedia, LLC creates marketing strategies (www.newrmedia.com) that combines components of new media, traditional media, public relations, and grassroots activism to accomplish real business results. "God-Guns and American Freedom," will air on local cable TV in the fourth quarter of 2009 on CN2 Extra out of Rock Hill, SC. Next year the full 13 show series will go to broadcast WJZY, Belmont, NC out of WIS Columbia, SC.
