A QUEER LOVE OF DIX

Aletia Upstairs, cabaret artiste extraordinaire, follows her hit shows Mata Hari and the Richard Demarco collaboration The Artist as Explorer, with her tribute to Weimar Cabaret and the work of artist Otto Dix. Relating days gone by to the events of today, through sharp and witty observations and songs like I am a Vamp, Alabama Song, Falling in Love Again, Pirate Jenny, and many more, this award-winning cabaret and performance artist conjures up a feast of fun, entertaining, and thought-provoking theatre. Wunderbar.

ZOMBIE ZOO

Dominic McHale and Kevin Short last appeared together in Edinburgh in the award-winning play The Pigsty (also written by Kevin Short). They celebrate their reunion with a vision of zombie life after the apocalypse. Combining film, drama, humour, music, song, and even dance, the piece centres around an imprisoned, partially sane, recovering zombie, and his zookeeper captor. Their relationship hovers between compassion and vitriol until the surprise denouement, which must not be revealed or zombies will devour your brains.

Hill Street Theatre, Hill Street EH2 3JP AUG 10-25 @ 3.00pm
