

Corridor Woodcrafters Club Meeting – 6:30 January 17, 2019 at the Cherry Building

30 people attended including 2 visitors

We welcome visitors, Matt Nevel and Aaron Bade

Near Misses:

Don Coleman – While sanding ¼ inch stock with his Delta sander. He got his hand into the sander. “ALWAYS USE A PUSH STICK”

Tom Nehl – Ended up with quite a large patch of skin missing from his arm after a 14 inch hickory bowl he was sanding exploded. He accidentally bumped the speed control button increasing the speed to 3300 RPM.

Jeff Van - Had a dust lung cancer scare. Turns out he contracted a fungal infection from sawdust. He had five surgeries in two weeks. Sounds like walnut and oak may have been the culprits and this is more common than we think. “WEAR A MASK”
