May 10, 2022 Meeting Minutes

- I. Welcome/Introductions –Jason Port
In attendance: Patrick Bathras, JoAnne Brack, Liz League, Jason Port, James Henson, Sue Gallagher, Tom McGinn, Jill McKay, Jim Cleveland, Jessica Farrar, Joanna Kouvaras, Lindsay Brown, Kim Marie Walker, Ryan Thompson, Sherri Norton.
- II. Committee Reports:
 - A. Financial Literacy
 - a. Financial Literacy Week Reflection: James thanked everyone who participated. Parent night and advisories were successful. Feedback has been very positive. The event provides real life lessons – e.g. student loan debt. One recommendation: more time is needed in order to properly cover the topics.
 - b. Legislation over the years has ensured that FL is included in curriculum.
 - c. Idea: offer something like something like Pastry with Professionals focusing on Financial Literacy – sessions throughout the year focused on Financial Literacy topics. This is the focus of the Financial Literacy club, except that the activity takes place after school. Another opportunity is using Falcon Block time for Financial Literacy topics.
 - d. Two more Financial Literacy club meetings are scheduled for this school year.
 - B. Pastries with Professionals Update
 - a. April 5-Dustin Angelo- Start Up/ Business Technology/ Mining
 - b. May 18- Sammie Garcia- Video audio production Engineering. 25 students are signed up.
 - c. June 14- Kim Walker- Medical Research Syneos Health- Will reschedule to June 8, 8:30-9:30.
 - d. Need to line up additional speakers for the fall. Kim has recruited other speakers for future sessions: chiropractor and architect. Due to the popularity of this activity, we may do it more frequently. Will start in October, allowing time to market the events.
 - C. President remarks/Future goals, ideas: Over the summer we should be thinking of additional ways we can help the students; think about our resources and contacts and how they can be useful to contribute to the mission of the BAB to support the students.
 - D. 2021/2022 BAB Highlights and Accomplishments: JoAnne shared slide presentation recapping the year. It is loated on the BAB website if anyone wants to view. www.sphsbab.org
