

..."I very much appreciate your efforts on my behalf."..."my staff and I are grateful to you for your outstanding assistance."

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Al Gore". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

Al Gore

"Over the past 15 years, I have employed Susan Steinkamp's Prompt Response teleprompter service many times, in various venues."

"Susan has demonstrated a master's touch in handling teleprompters and adjusting to this individual speaker's rhythm and needs. She's a delight to work with and very conscientious."

"I heartily recommend her services to any speaker wishing to use a teleprompter to make a great impression on his or her audience."

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Casey Kasem". The signature is highly stylized and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

Casey Kasem

"Gigs like this are far and few between. Even when someone who does teleprompter instead of coming in and saying it's just another gig, she was as into making it a perfect as everyone on our staff, even though she'd worked with us for only 2 days; she was that invested."

-Gary Dell'Abate, Executive Producer of The Howard Stern Show, Howard Stern's 60th Birthday Bash

"My Dear Sue:

What a wonderful job you've done. You're an expert professional and everything you touched was excellently done. My highest praise to you and your work. I look forward to doing the same thing in the very near future."

Fondly, Bill (William Shatner)