From Your President

I hope everyone has enjoyed a wonderful holiday season and that you and your horses (& dogs & cats, etc.!) stayed warm over the cold, cold days we just had over Christmas. As we start the new year of 2023, what are your resolutions for the year? Are you moving up a level? Are you trying something new? Is a new horse coming your way? Let us know!

Saturday, January 14 is the Annual Awards Banquet at Buddy's Bearden Banquet Hall. There is still time to RSVP to the evite you received. Or let Jean Sullivan know asap at Shamrockfarm3100@gmail.com. This is a great time to meet up with fellow members of CDCTS, participate in the Silent Auction (we have some absolutely wonderful items ready for your bids), the Whinny Wine Raffle (cash is appreciated when you buy your raffle tickets), a guest speaker and more fun!

Also coming your way---Know the Movement seminar on February 11, taught by Donna Richardson. This is a great educational opportunity and seating is limited. Sign up when you get the details by email.

We're looking for a place to have our Spring Schooling Show the first Saturday in May. If you have any ideas of venues that could accommodate dressage and combined tests, please contact me. We will have a summer schooling show, our fall schooling show in September and of course, Fall Fun Day in late October. Our Working Equitation Obstacle play day was a huge success and we hope to have another in 2023. What events would you like CDCTS to host? Are you willing to help put them on? Volunteers are always needed at all of our events!

Until next month, Happy Riding!

Carolyn Ordal,

CDCTS President
