From Your President

A big thank you to everyone who attended our Spring Schooling show at Icon Equestrian Center on May 7. An even bigger THANK YOU to everyone who volunteered to help. Check out the photos in this newsletter.

Next up is up is our Summer Schooling show June 25 at Walnut Grove Stables in Talbott. This show will feature all kinds of dressage as well as two Working Equitation style obstacle classes. As usual, we will need volunteers. Rita Dunn, our Volunteer Coordinator, may be contacting you about volunteering. Don't know what to do as a volunteer? Not to worry, we will train you!

Summer weather is upon us, so take care when working your equine partner. Try to ride in the cooler parts of the day, pay attention to both heat and humidity and stay hydrated. If it's hot for you, it's hot for your horse. After riding, cool them off with water, especially on the large muscle groups, rump, back, flanks, chest, and shoulders. And remember water on, water off. Scrape off the water so it doesn't act as an insulator. We want everyone to stay happy and healthy in the heat!

What are you going to do new in 2022? Inquiring minds want to know! Share your equine adventures with us in a newsletter article.

Until next month, Happy Riding!

Carolyn Ordal,

CDCTS President

CDCTS NEEDS YOU!

Crossroads Dressage and Combined Training Society (CDCTS) has longstanding volunteer requirements for members in order to be eligible for Year End Awards.

In order for these schooling shows to run as smoothly as possible, we need people, like you, to volunteer their time. Even if you are not a current CDCTS member, but would be willing to help us out, that would be very much appreciated!

We know it's difficult to juggle your time, especially when you want to compete the same day as the show. To help with that, we can offer you a variety of tasks, from helping with parking, to running scores between judge and secretary, or learning to become an official scorer. You let us know when you can be available and we'll find something for you to do!

If you can volunteer your time at the summer schooling show and want to earn volunteer hours ($10.00 Voucher for 8 hours) towards year end awards, or just be willing to help us out, please consider the following.

Name: _____ Contact: _____

I am willing to help with the following tasks:

___ Help set up Friday evening from 5:00 pm to _____ (Typically 2 hours)

___ Assist with parking Saturday from 8:00 am to _____

___ Score runner: Saturday from _____ to _____ OR _____ to _____

___ Ring Stewart Saturday from _____ to _____ OR _____ to _____ ___ Assist with changing arena between small and large (time to be determined)

___ Assist with setting up obstacles for WE classes (time to be determined)

___ Help tear down Saturday evening after the show (Typically 1-2 hours)

___ I would like to learn about scoring and can help the official scorer (Cannot be actively competing on Saturday to help with this position)

Please include this request with your entry form or contact the Show Manager or the Volunteer Coordinator:

Show Manager: Dene Massengill: 423-736-3287 or denefoxhunter@charter.net
