From Your President

Hey CDCTS members!

It's finally here! Beautiful fall weather! I have my harvest Yankee candle lit on the kitchen table in celebration. The temperature was so enjoyable that I got three horses ridden this morning. After all of the heat and humidity, it's time to get outside and get your training and pleasure riding done!

We have two great opportunities to enjoy fall. Our fall schooling show is on September 26th. I'm bringing a green broke horse that I may even attempt to ride after everything settles down. Getting off the farm and getting rode in a new place is an exciting experience for a young horse. Sometimes too exciting! We also have our Fall Fun Day on October 17th. Steve Lloyd and I are dressing up as people from the Wizard of Oz. I challenge other club members to beat us in the costume class. It's always a good time!

Be sure to start getting your club memberships in. For USDF, our year starts in November and that month isn't very far away.

If you are planning to apply for year end awards, be sure you have at least four hours of volunteer time. We only have these last two events to earn those hours!

Hope to see everyone at the next club meeting that always happens on the second Tuesday of the month. We are still meeting at Carol Grau's Merryhour Farm. The October meeting will probably be in her indoor arena as the daylight hours are getting shorter. We need your ideas and input to help our club grow!

Jean Sullivan,
CDCTS President

CDCTS MEETING MINUTES, September 8, 2020

I. Call to order

Vice-President Kennetha Eikelberg called to order the regular meeting of the CDCTS Board at 7:00 p.m. on September 8, 2020 at Merryhour Farm, Maryville, TN.

II. Roll Call

Vice President Kennetha Eikelberg conducted the roll call. The following board members were present: Kennetha Eikelberg, Carolyn Ordal, Carol Mitchell, Alece Ellis and Jill Strain. The following Board members were absent: Jean Sullivan, and Susan Hill. The following CDCTS members were in attendance: Julie Hall, Rita Dunn, Rosemary Jones, Carol Grau, Dave Macadoo, and Susan Michaud. Guests: Charlie Grau.

III. Approval of minutes from last meeting

Minutes from August 11, 2020 were sent electronically via newsletter to all members for their review. A motion to accept the minutes as read by Alece Ellis and was seconded by Carolyn Ordal.

IV. Committee Reports

Treasurer's Report

Jill Strain presented the financials. Alece Ellis made a motion to accept the Treasurer's Report and was seconded by Carol Mitchell.

Show Committee

- a. Fall Schooling School: Update provided by Carol Mitchell to include info on entries received by the Show Secretary. Facility and judge are ready for the show. Volunteer requirements updated by Rita Dunn.
- b. Fall Fun Day: Will be held October 17, 2020 at River Glen Equestrian Center. Volunteers are needed. It was suggested that social media be saturated at least 2 times per week. Closing date is October 13, 2020. Julie Hall to get with Carolyn Ordal to print maps for those participants that request one. There was discussion regarding discontinuation of this event due to low participation. There was also discussion regarding extending the closing date but increasing the cost by $5.00 per class.

V. Old Business

Riding High: Dave Macadoo, advises that Riding High is about 75% back in business after the COVID shutdowns. It was suggested we continue to contribute $800 toward this club project. Carolyn Ordal moved to accept this recommendation and Carol Mitchell seconded the motion. All in favor, none opposed. Motion carried. Dave Macadoo advises the 2019 audit did not find any discrepancies.

VI. New Business

2021 Membership: Discussion was held regarding reasons for membership decline (and how to resolve this) as well as cost of membership increase. Membership forms will be available at CDCTS events to promote renewal and new membership. The consensus is to leave the membership fees as is for 2019.

Non-Profit Status: Kennetha Eikelberg initiated a discussion regarding establishing the club as a 501C3. There was a lengthy and lively discussion regarding the pros and cons of this suggestion. Rosemary Jones motioned to table to a future date. Motion was seconded and the issue is tabled at this time.

VII. Upcoming Local Events.

CDCTS Volunteer Procedures

1. Volunteers must sign in and out at club shows or clinics to receive volunteer credit. The sign in sheet will be at the show secretaries' desk at the show. The volunteer coordinator will have the list at set-up. If you don't sign in or out, you don't get credit for your volunteer time.
2. Eight hours of volunteer work equals one $10 voucher.
3. Voucher is good for all CDCTS clinics and shows and all outside clinics. i.e. Jim Koford etc.
4. Volunteer hours count toward year end club volunteer award. The member with the most volunteer hours will win this award.
5. Vouchers can be signed over to another person.
6. Volunteer hours cannot be signed over to another person.
7. Four volunteer hours are required to qualify for year-end awards.
8. Upon receiving your voucher, sign your voucher.
9. If you donate your voucher to someone else, have that person also sign your voucher.
10. If you are using your voucher at a CDCTS sponsored event, turn in your voucher with your show or clinic payment.
11. If you are using a voucher for an outside clinic, bring proof of clinic to CDCTS along with voucher and value of voucher will be paid to voucher holder.

These are the parameters for volunteer vouchers for board members and CDCTS scholarships for supported club activities. Board members will receive eleven volunteer hours for being a board member. These hours can be exchanged for vouchers to go to CDCTS clinics and CDCTS shows and outside clinics. This is a volunteer hour for each regularly scheduled board meeting not counting the banquet meeting. These volunteer hours will also count toward the end of year volunteer award.

Also we are giving scholarships to people who take on the duties of a show secretary or design and run a dressage or combined training clinic. For the show secretary, that person will receive a $100 scholarship to be used toward a mounted or unmounted education opportunity. For the person running a dressage or combined training clinic, that person will receive a scholarship in the amount of one ride for that clinic.

WORKING EQUITATION

Working Equitation Boards Combine Under New Name

The combined boards of WE United and the Confederation for Working Equitation recently unanimously selected the name USA Working Equitation (USAWE) for the new consolidated WE association.

The new website address will be USAWE.org – the page is empty now, but they are looking forward to publishing it within the next few months.

USA Working Equitation will be incorporated in Colorado, a state selected for its central location, low overhead for non-profits, and out of a desire to start fresh, in a state that neither WE United or the Confederation for Working Equitation had previously been headquartered.

The USA Working Equitation (USAWE) board is currently reviewing logo submissions with the final selection to be sent to the membership for a vote of acceptance.

Working Equitation Tennessee

A group Facebook page has been set up for Working Equitation in Tennessee and surrounding areas. Members can use this site to ask questions, share photos or videos, post Working Equitation clinics, shows, demonstrations or other Working Equitation events. Working Equitation horses, tack and equipment are also allowed. Keep it friendly and have fun.

River Glen Equestrian Park – 1834 London Rd, New Market, TN 37820.

Class 1: Walkers—Teams of 2-5 riders who want to walk (and maybe a little trot) while they enjoy a ride around River Glen Equestrian Park. This group's teams will start at 3 minute intervals, starting at 9:00 a.m. The last team should be on course by 10:30 a.m. If more than 20 teams sign up for this Group, all other times will be adjusted accordingly. There will be a mandatory stop on course. Team closest to optimum time wins.

Class 2: Hilltoppers—Teams of 2-5 riders who want to walk, trot and do some cantering around the course at River Glen Equestrian Park. This group's teams will start at 5 minute intervals, starting at 11:00 a.m. There will be a mandatory stop on course. Team closest to optimum time wins.

Class 3: Fast 'n Furious—Really just sort of fast, and hopefully having a good time, so they are not "furious". Teams of 2-5 riders who elect to travel the course at a USEA Novice level eventer's pace. This group's teams will start at 3 minute intervals beginning at 1 p.m. Team closest to optimum time wins.

Class 4: Jump class For those who want to soar (maybe not soar, this is not WEG!!!) over jumps—maximum height is no more than 2'3". Jump course starts at 2:15 p.m. Individual entries or no more than 3 on a team. Individual or Team closest to optimum time wins. Jump class will start after last Class 3 team has finished. We are only using the starter novice jumps at River Glen.

Class 5: Costumes! There will be no separate costume class, but anyone in any group can ride in costume to qualify for a ribbon in this class. Awards in both Adult and Kids Under age 16 categories.

Class 6: Run for the Money! Do you feel Lucky? Each team will be dealt 5 cards for a 5 card stud poker hand. At some point on the course, the team will have the option to trade in up to 3 cards for new ones. The team with the best hand wins! Along with a ribbon, First place team gets the entry fee for this class ($15) back, 2nd place team gets a ribbon $10 back and 3rd place team gets a ribbon $5 back. The 4-6th place finishers just get pretty ribbons.

Class 7: Wine/Whine by the Barrel! This is for teams of 2. Rider A starts at 1 end of the area, rides to the barrel in the middle and drinks a glass of wine (or lemonade), then proceeds to the opposite end of the arena. Rider A must hand tag Rider B who repeats riding to the barrel, drinking the wine (or lemonade) and crosses the start/finish line. Fastest Team wins! A special prize awaits the winning team! Must show valid ID in order to have wine by the barrel. Otherwise, you can just whine about it. This class will start after the last jumper has completed the course.

Rules: Each class (1-4) will have a predetermined optimum time and winners are based on closest to optimum time. Penalty points assigned for missed jumps and/or refusals in Class 4.

Guidance on Social Distancing During the CDCTS Fall Fun Day 2020 River Glen Equestrian Park

Jefferson County Executive, Dennis Gannon, in conjunction with Jefferson County Health Department (JCHD) Director, Kelley Vollmar, strongly encourage county residents to wear cloth face coverings while in public to prevent further spread of COVID-19.

Due to Covid 19 virus pandemic, precautions will be taken:

1. Entries must be postmarked or sent in via Paypal by 6 p.m. Tuesday, Oct 13, 2020.
2. Social distancing will be observed and masks worn when necessary.
3. You need not wear masks while on horseback.

Maximum 50 people at the event at any given time, including competitors, spectators, coaches, all of whom will be practicing social distancing and where necessary, wearing masks.

When at least 6 feet of physical distancing cannot be consistently maintained, patrons and volunteers will wear face coverings. Those individuals volunteering at the show, who will be within the 6 foot distance, will wear a face covering. All competitors will maintain a physical distance of 6 feet from anyone not in their household while at their trailer area, while at the ring and while watching the show.

When coming within 6 feet of someone from another household, volunteer or competitor, masks must be worn. No congregating will be allowed. Areas of potential congregation, such as the secretary's table or the scorer's table will have markers to denote 6 foot intervals. Please respect these intervals. Plan to arrive a bit earlier to take into account that the secretary's table will be socially distanced and check-in may take slightly longer.

Sanitize surfaces and items between users. Engage in enhanced sanitation practices.

Porta-potties will have hand sanitizer and, if available, we will rent a porta-potty with hand-washing capability. Secretary and scorer table will have hand sanitizer available. When in line to use the porta-potty, please respect the 6 foot physical distance from the facility and from each other.

Treat every patron and volunteer worker as if they are potentially infectious and respond with social distancing, as appropriate.
