From Your President

CDCTS members rock! When we could not get a venue for our Fall Schooling Show, Susan Hill offered her Topperhill Farm for a Working Equitation Play Day and Rita Dunn (General Dunn!) took charge of scheduling and teaching! We had 15 riders enjoying a nice fall day and playing with the bull, barrels, slalom, sidepass, hoisting the jug, ringing the bell and more. Thanks to everyone who participated and volunteered. Check out the pictures!

Speaking of volunteering, November 30, 2022 is rapidly approaching. That is when your 2022 scores need to be turned in for consideration for our year end awards. Not only do you have to meet the score requirements, but you also have to have at least 4 hours of volunteer time. Have you done your 4 hours yet? There's still time! Fall Fun Day is October 29 at River Glen and I need help! (See the entry form in this newsletter!)

I need: 3 people to help set up on Friday, 2 timers, 1 person to work concessions, 1 person to be at the water hazard on course, 4 jump judges (you can jump judge after you ride your course!), and 4-6 people to clean up after the show. Text me at 443-670-2108 or email me at carolyn.ordal@youthvillages.org if you can volunteer.

You should be receiving your e-vite to the Members Party on October 22. Food! Fun! Door Prizes! Make sure you RSVP by the due date.

There are many opportunities as we go into the autumn season, so what are you going to do new in 2022? Share your equine adventures with pictures or in a newsletter article.

Until next month, Happy Riding!

Carolyn Ordal,
CDCTS President
