What is MDA's Theater Connection?

Theater Connection is MDA's integrated dance-and-theater program! This project-based program is designed to guide students through the theatrical process and enable them to grow & discover new talents through the arts. Each project concludes with a full-staged production.

Who is New Paradigm Theatre Co.?

NPT is a professional theatre company that combines Broadway and film professionals with local students & adults in each production. Led by Broadway Veteran & Artistic Director, Kristin Huffman, NPT aims to enhance students' experience in the arts through educational opportunities and working alongside professionals in the theatre industry.
