

Photo by Heidi Sheesley, TreeSearch

Variegated Eureka Lemon

This variegated lemon is prized for its stunning green and creamy white, variegated foliage and its juicy, market quality variegated lemons. The flesh is light pink at maturity, has very few seed and is wonderfully tart and acidic. It makes an excellent landscape tree, patio tree or container plant. Like many lemons it should be protected during a hard freeze. Averages 12'-15' tall. Sun. Moist, well-drained soil.