

BYLAWS FOR PASCO HORSEMENS ASSOCIATION, INC

Effective January 01, 2024. These Bylaws replace all previous Bylaws.

ARTICLE I - NAME

Section 1 - This organization shall be known as Pasco Horsemen's Association; official abbreviation PHA and shall always be run and conducted as a Not-For-Profit Association by the laws of the State of Florida, providing for such organizations and by which it shall acquire all such rights as granted to an association of this kind. No part of any net earnings shall benefit any member or individual.

ARTICLE II - GOVERNANCE

Section 1 - The governing body and decision-making responsibilities of Pasco Horsemen's Association shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1 - The objective of this association shall be to:

- Promote the equine industry, to teach self-esteem and good sportsmanship to all participants regardless of age and/or disabilities and to further the knowledge of horses and horsemanship to all those involved.
- Promote, encourage, and stimulate interest in the equine community by hosting shows, clinics, and benefits.
- Provide the opportunity for everyone to be able to show their horses in a competitive and friendly atmosphere.

Section 2 - All persons who desire to become members of this organization shall subscribe to the purpose and objectives of the Association as outlined in Article II of the bylaws.

ARTICLE IV - PLACE OF BUSINESS

Section 1 - The principal place of business and mailing address shall be:
13215 Fivay Road, Hudson, FL 34667. Pasco County, Florida

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - Eligibility. Membership in the association shall be open to anyone, upon the completion and approval of a membership application and payment of dues. All members must agree to abide by all rules and regulations of PHA. Failure to abide by PHA Rules and Regulations will result in disciplinary action by the Executive Board, with possible cancellation of membership with no refund.

In addition to membership, members may be required to assist the association with volunteer hours for all members 18-years-old or older. The Executive board has the right to govern how the volunteer hours are requested, assigned, performed, managed, and recorded. If a member cannot complete the volunteer hours set for that year, the member shall pay a sponsorship fee in lieu of volunteer hours, a sponsorship fee amount set by the Executive Board. The Executive Board reserves the right to suspend any member's membership for failure to complete volunteer hours and/or fail to pay the sponsorship fee.

Section 2 - Dues. Membership is based on the payment of an individual person or family dues to the association. Payment may be made by an individual or family member to whom the individual belongs and resides with, and shall carry with it the right to vote, if the member is 18 years or older by the time ballots are distributed. Dues shall not be pro-rated at any time during the year.

Section 3 - Membership Term. Memberships are carried from January 1st through December 31st of each year.

Section 4 - Honorary Membership. Honorary membership may be conferred by unanimous vote of the members present upon individuals who have made distinguished contributions to this association. Honorary members shall not be entitled to vote or hold office and shall be exempt from payment of dues.

Section 5 - Admission. An individual becomes an active or honorary member upon acceptance of the application and payment of dues, as applicable or approval of the Executive Board.

Section 6 - Voting. To be eligible to vote, a member must have an active membership prior to June 1st of the current voting year.

Section 7 - Revocation. The Executive Board may revoke the membership of any person for nonpayment of dues, or for other just cause, including violations of PHA rules and regulations. A person considered for membership revocation, except for nonpayment of dues, shall be provided with a written notice of the proposed action by the Executive Board and be given an opportunity to show cause as to why he/she should not be revoked.

Section 8 - Discipline. Infractions of PHA rules by any member or non-member will result in discipline as follows, but not limited to:

- Violator(s) will be required to leave property.
- Loss of points and no refund for that show.

- 45-day suspension from property, meetings, and gatherings.
- 1-year suspension from property, meetings, and gatherings.

NOTE: The Executive Board reserves the right to revoke memberships or escalate discipline based on criminal activity or other serious offenses, with a majority vote of a quorum of the Executive Board present at the meeting.

Section 9 - Grievance: If a member has been revoked or suspended the person it affects will be allowed to address in writing or in person to the Executive Board. This will be done at a special meeting called by the President.

Section 10 - Concerns/Complaints: Members may send written concerns or complaints to the Association, at the address listed in Article IV. Issues will be discussed by the Executive Board. Members may also bring their concerns or complaints before the Executive Board during a meeting. Members may or may not be notified of outcomes due to confidentiality. The Executive Board decision will be final.

Section 11 - Compliance. All members in good standing shall follow and be bound by these Bylaws and by the Rules and Regulations of PHA.

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE BOARD OFFICERS

The Officers of the Association are President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary.
