22 Geoff Winkler, the Court-appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”), respectfully submits this 23 Certificate of Notice Required by LR 66-5 and Notice of Non-Opposition to his Motion for 24 Approval of (1) the Receiver’s Interim Distribution Plan and (2) Procedures for the Disposition 25 of the Estate’s Interests in Certain Real Property (the “Motion”) (ECF No. 48).

26 Under Local Rule 7-2(b), any response in opposition to a motion is due fourteen (14)
27 days after the motion is filed. See LR 7-2(b). “The failure of an opposing party to file points 28 and authorities in response to any motion, except a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56 or a motion for attorneys’ fees constitutes a consent to the granting of the motion.” LR 7-2(d). Under Local

1 Rule 66-5, a receiver is required to also provide all interested parties and potential creditors at 2 least fourteen (14) days' notice before the Court hears and resolves certain matters. See 3 LR 66- 5.

4 The Receiver filed and electronically served the Motion on April 5, 2023. (See 5 ECF No. 48). Any response in opposition to the Motion was therefore due April 19, 2023.
6 Consistent with the Court's direction at the February 23, 2023, hearing, the Receiver also 7 notified all known creditors and other interested parties for whom the Receiver has an email
8 address by email on or before April 7, 2023, and all known creditors and other interested parties
9 for whom the Receiver has a mailing address but no email address by United States mail on or 10 before April 13, 2023. The undersigned certifies that the notice described in this paragraph was 11 provided by the dates stated.

12 After providing the notice to potential creditors described above, the Receiver received 13 phone calls and emails from individuals who identified themselves as CapSource investors with 14 questions regarding the Motion. Specifically, the Receiver and his staff fielded and/or 15 responded to approximately thirty-two (32) phone calls and twenty-two (22) emails from 16 investors and/or potential creditors pertaining to the Motion. The Receiver provided as much 17 information to those potential creditors as he appropriately and practically could. No investor
18 or other potential creditor of the Estate indicated an intention to intervene in this case to oppose
19 the Motion or otherwise challenge the Motion, but they were nevertheless advised of their right 20 to do so.

21 The fourteen-day notice periods provided by Local Rules 7-2(b) and 66-5 have thus both 22 expired, and no party, interested party, or creditor filed any opposition or other response to the 23 Motion. That being the case, and also in consideration of the substantive points and legal
