Prepositions: On, in My favourite song is playing on the radio.

We use 'on' when talking about something that appears on electronic devices (called 'digital media').

There's a good show on television.

I found that information on the internet.

Do you know that song on the radio?

I read the news on my phone.

We use 'in' when talking about something that appears on paper, like books and magazines (called 'print media').

I read a good article in Time magazine.

I found this recipe in an Italian cookbook.

Interactive practice

Ask each other these questions. Give as many answers as possible for each question.

- Where do you watch movies and TV shows?
- Where do you get your news?
- Where do you listen to music?
- Where do you watch videos?
- Where do you get recipes?

2 Fill in the blanks with 'on' or 'in.'

- Is the hockey game on TV?
- The child loved the pictures in her book.
 - The best shows are on Netflix.
 - For the latest news, I look on the internet.
 - I prefer finding definitions in a paper dictionary.
 - There's never anything good on TV.
 - The first thing I do in a newspaper is the crossword puzzle.
 - They play good music on that radio station.

Review the vocabulary for Clothes. (You saw this in Unit A1-02.)

clothes	a t-shirt	a shirt	jeans	pants
a blouse	a skirt	a dress	a jacket	a coat
a watch	glasses	a hat	shoes	boots

Possessive adjectives

The party is at our house.

I → my	That is my book.
you → your	Where is your car?
he → his	Luke is with his sister.
she → her	Mia is with her father.
it → its	The tree lost its leaves.
we → our	The party is at our house.
they → their	The girls saw their friends.

If a man has something, we use 'his.' If a woman has something, we use 'her.'

I saw James and his mother yesterday.

Sarah and her son are visiting this weekend.*

Interactive practice

Compare some of your everyday objects to your tutor's everyday objects. You can compare clothes and their sizes and their colours, for example, or items from your backpacks. Use 'my' and 'your.' Then, it is your tutor's turn. Do two items each.

3 Put in the correct possessive adjectives.

- ▶ I can't start my car.

to be hungry	some food	a bowl of soup	a slice of pizza	a sandwich
a piece of cake	a cracker	a bowl of ice cream	a cup of coffee	a cup of tea

Let's chat! Using the Arts and media, talk about your favourites. You can ask questions like, "Who is your favourite singer?" or "What is your favourite television show?" Then, your tutor answers and asks you, "What about you, who is your favourite singer?" Switch roles and do a few like this. Also ask about favourite meals. For the answers, remember to use 'your' and 'my.'

Let's chat! Choose a person from your personal life, like, "I want to talk about my sister." Your tutor asks you questions about that person's favourites, just like in the last Interactive practice. Your tutor uses 'his' or 'her' in the questions, and you also use those words for the answers. Then, switch roles. Do one man and one woman each.

Many questions: Your tutor secretly chooses an object from the Everyday objects vocabulary list. Ask as many yes/no questions as you want about the object, for example: "Is it a small object?" "Does it have a screen?" When you are sure, you can have one guess: "It's a cell phone!" Your tutor tells you if you've got it or not. Switch roles. Do a few objects each.

Unit review

Little words: "My book is on the table."

Secret word: When it's my turn, I secretly choose a word from the Arts and media vocabulary list. Then, I describe this thing to you without saying the word. You try to guess what word I'm talking about. Then we switch. You can use the vocabulary list while playing. Play for a few minutes.

6 Choose the correct preposition from the choices in parentheses.

- ▶ We saw a bird high above the trees. (above, in front of, under)
- a) My car is parked the house. (behind, between, above)
- b) The lawn my house needs water. (on, between, in front of)
- c) Gabriel sat down Aurora and looked into her eyes. (between, above, next to)
- d) We can meet in the park the oak tree. (under, between, above)
- e) There's an exit sign the exterior door. (above, against, under)
- f) Kinsley likes to sit her sisters on the sofa. (under, between, above)

Vocabulary review: Everyday objects. Draw a line to connect the words to the pictures.

a camera		a dictionary		a newspaper
a cell phone		a page		a photo
a computer		a pen		a key
a radio		a pencil		a drum set
a watch		an eraser		a guitar

Where is it? Take an object that you have with you, maybe from your pockets or your backpack. Put it somewhere in relation to your hands, and then ask the other person where the object is, for example, "Where is my phone?" They can look, but they have to answer using at least one Preposition of place. Then, switch roles. Do four each, with different prepositions.

7 Last week, my group of friends organized a used gift circle! Each person had to give one of their old things to one other person. Who gave what to who? Use possessive adjectives to explain it.

Charlotte (cell phone) → Jayden (computer) → Benjamin (guitar) → Madelyn (camera) → Olivia and Sebastian (drum set) → Julian (watch) → Leah (trumpet) → me (violin) → Charlotte

- ▶ Charlotte gave her cell phone to Jayden.
- a) Jayden gave _____ to Jayden.
- b) Benjamin gave _____
- c) _____
- d) _____
- e) _____
- f) _____
- g) _____

Writing topic: You will write about the objects that some of your friends and family have. Write about one of your objects by describing it or expressing how you feel about it. Then write about an object that belongs to a male friend or family member. Finally, write about an object that belongs to a female friend or family member. Try to use a possessive adjective ('my', 'his', 'her', 'our', 'their') for each object.
