Adjectives: Word order

A dark green shirt

If I say, 'a grey t-shirt,' the word 'grey,' like most words for colours, is an adjective. The word 't-shirt,' like most objects, is a noun. In English, adjectives normally come before nouns. If you want to specify the intensity of the colour, 'light' or 'dark' goes before the colour.

Ella is wearing a red hat with a white skirt.

Lucas has a dark blue coat, but it's in the car.

I am wearing a shirt dark red.

2 Make sentences with these words and 'I have' or 'I don't have.'

| h) pants made of denim | n) women's clothing for upper body and legs |
| i) cover for the feet and lower legs | |
| | o) upper-body clothing |

This and that, these and those I like those glasses.

If I want to point to an object or a person, I can use 'this' or 'that.' If I see one man, I can say 'this man' or 'that man.' If the man is close, I will say 'this man.' If the man is far, I will say 'that man.'

For the plural, I will use 'these' and 'those.' For example, if there are women close to me, I will say 'these women.' If they are far, I will say 'those women.'

(I show you my watch.)

This watch is a gift from my mother.

(I look at your watch)

That watch is too big for me.

(I look at my pants.)

These pants need washing.

(I look at the pants in a store window.)

Those pants look very expensive.

Interactive practice

Choose an object, like 'hat.' You and your tutor find a picture of it on your phones or a computer.

- Point to the one on your phone. Ask your tutor, "What colour is this hat?" Your tutor answers. Then, point to the one on your tutor's phone. "What colour is that hat?"
- It is your tutor's turn. They choose the object, you both find a picture, and then your tutor asks you the questions.

Present progressive: To wear Is he wearing a hat?

+ I'm wearing dark brown shoes. You're wearing a watch. She's wearing a red t-shirt. We're wearing brown coats. They're wearing yellow boots.	- I'm not wearing dark brown shoes. You're not wearing a watch. She's not wearing a red t-shirt. We're not wearing brown coats. They're not wearing yellow boots.	? Am I wearing dark brown shoes? Are you wearing a watch? Is she wearing a red t-shirt? Are we wearing brown coats? Are they wearing yellow boots?

Watch out! "I have" is very different from "I am wearing." "I am wearing" is about right now, the clothes I have on me now. "I have" is about the clothes that I have at home. For example, you probably have twenty shirts at home, but of course, you're wearing only one shirt right now.

Interactive practice
 Using the Colour and Clothes vocabulary lists:
 a) Your tutor will ask you this question, "What are you wearing?" Answer, naming the pieces of clothing and their colour. Then, it is your turn. Ask your tutor the same question.

b) Using your phone or a magazine, find a picture of someone, and ask your tutor, "What is he wearing?" or "What is she wearing?" Then, it's your tutor's turn to find a picture.

To have: Short answers Yes, I do. No, I don't.

? Do you have a watch? Does she have white shoes? Do we have enough t-shirts? Do they have dark grey jackets?	+ Yes, I do. Yes, she does. Yes, we do. Yes, they do.	- No, I don't. No, she doesn't. No, we don't. No, they don't.

- c) clean | feet | you ..
- d) shoes | blue | Ryan ..
- e) black | clothes | we ..
- f) light | shirts | blue | they ..
- g) Ava | mouth | big ..

Let's chat! Use the vocabulary list for Clothes. Choose an object, then choose a colour to go with it, and ask your tutor if they have that. For example, you could start with, "Do you have a dark brown t-shirt?" Your tutor answers with a short answer: "Yes, I do," or "No, I don't." Then, your tutor asks you a question. Try to do the whole list for Clothes.

To be: Short answers Yes, I am. No, I'm not.

? Am I fat? Are you busy? Is she 18 years old? Are we very tired? Are they all right?	+ Yes, you are. Yes, I am. Yes, she is. Yes, we are. Yes, they are.	- No, you're not. No, I'm not. No, she isn't. No, we aren't. No, they aren't.
---	---	---

5 Write questions using be.

- ▶ You | tall Are you tall? d) I | slim
- a) Beautiful | she e) Old | we
- b) Young | they f) He | short
- c) Ok | you g) Tall | Mason

Play "Guess who?" Check to see if the help center has a copy of the game "Guess Who?" Play one game. You need to ask yes/no questions. Answer with short answers. "Does your character have red hair?" "Yes, he does." "Is your character a man?" "No, she isn't."

Unit review

Describing: "This is a blue shirt."

Secret word: When it's my turn, I secretly choose a word from the Body vocabulary list. Then, I describe this thing to you without saying the word. You try to guess what word I'm talking about. Then we switch. You can use the vocabulary list while playing. Play for a few minutes.

Do you remember the difference between "I have a hat" and "I am wearing a hat?" Explain it to your tutor.

Here are the two different short answers that you saw:

Do you have brown boots?

Yes, I do.

Are you wearing brown boots?

No, I'm not.

Interactive practice

For each line, ask a simple yes/no question using 'have' or 'wear' (your choice) about the other person's clothes. Alternate with your tutor to ask questions. The other person tries to answer using short answers.
