Getting Ready for the New School Year

Anyone passing the Memorial Campus will find evidence of a temporary roof in place on the building. This is the first step in restoring what was destroyed by Hurricanes Irma & Maria. A more permanent roof replacement plan is already in the works. The architectural drawings were presented to the Historic Preservation Committee recently, and after review, the Committee approved (with some conditions) the roof repairs to be done.

With the temporary roof in place, the building can be completely dried out and the work of gutting the building, and rebuilding or refitting the interior structures can begin. In this way, we hope to have more of the classrooms available and furnished for the new school year, beginning August 27, 2018. your continued patronage, prayers and support for the Moravian School are required and expected.

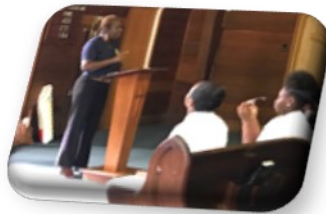

Thank You!

Our first annual “International Taste of the Territory Fundraiser” held on Saturday, June 9, 2018 went exceedingly well. The event received good support from the public and the Moravian School family. We want to express our sincere gratitude to all who supported this fundraising event. We extend extra special thanks to the families, chefs, caterers and restaurants who responded to the call and generously contributed to a feast of culinary delights. This event would not have been possible without them. Moreover, we must thank the organizing committee for its foresight, determination and faith in promoting and staging such an excellent event. To all and to God, we owe a debt of gratitude.

Global Youth Initiative (GYI)

The Moravian School was happy to participate in the John Maxwell Global Youth Initiative event in April. Program representatives and certified coaches—Ms. Donalie Edwards-Cabey and Mr. & Mrs. Ruan encouraged students to fail forward—to see failure as a positive part of the road to success. The truth is success comes through a commitment to learn from one's mistake and to use stumbling blocks as stepping stones. Another GYI will be held in October.

PTA Meeting: As plans are finalized for Kindergarten and the 8th Grade Promotion will meet on Thursday, June 21st at 5pm at the Nisky Campus.
