TIP OF THE MONTH

Choose a Memorable Date

You can plan your wedding around a season, a location, or a special date. If you are set on a specific venue, make sure to book it well in advance. Consider your budget for your wedding, the guests you plan to invite and their availability, and how much time you will need to plan your wedding. Remember: you and your fiancé are going to celebrate this anniversary for the rest of your lives—so choose wisely!

TO THE MERLOS

02.02.02

It was 2001 when my sister, Maria asked me to not only be her Maid of Honor, BUT also, her Wedding Planner! It took us about 10 months to make all things ironclad before their big day. I was in my last year at the "U" and truly thought my first passion was to be on air as a Sports Reporter. But, I guess God had different plans. After their wedding, my real passion for planning weddings and events awakened. In December 2002, I received my B.A. in Broadcast/Journalism from the University of Miami. 2002 was a VERY Special Year for me and I am incredibly grateful to the Merlos for trusting me to plan one of the Biggest days of their Life! So this month, I want to Honor both of them, wishing them a lifetime of happiness filled with God's Faith, Hope and Love!
