Wonderful things to do in Portland Maine:

You can watch the sunrise over the water!
Enjoy fresh caught lobster!

You can walk along tree lined streets among centuries old homes.

You can dance at Maine Ballroom Dance with everyone from the Maine Event Ballroom Dance Camp!

Climb up the Portland Observatory on Munjoy Hill. You can see the islands out to sea and the mountains inland.

Visit the Portland Museum of Art (1 block from studio)

Visit the Wadsworth Longfellow House.

Check out our working waterfront.

Hike the East End Trail along the waterfront.

Kayaking, sailing, paddle boarding and fishing out of the harbor.

Maine Duck Tour (land and sea), and many other cruises (whale, tour, learn to sail, etc)

Shopping: The Old Port area has many unique shopping spots and many craft breweries

Visit our many fabulous restaurants!

Places to visit close to Portland:

Portland Head Light at Fort Williams in Cape Elizabeth (most famous light house)

Two Lights State Park in Cape Elizabeth, and enjoy lunch at The Lobster Shack

Take the morning Casco Bay Ferry Mail Boat Run and see all the Islands in Casco Bay

Take the Casco Bay Ferry to Peaks Island for lunch at one of the restaurants on the Island

More craft breweries www.visitportland.com (LINK) has lots of information about many wonderful adventures you can enjoy in Portland and vicinity.

Other Adventures that will take longer (for before or after camp):

Visit Acadia National Park in Bar Harbor.

Drive up Cadillac Mountain (sunrise is spectacular). Walk around the top of the highest mountain in Maine. Reservations are now needed for that (check their website).

If you plan to camp, reservations need to be made way in advance.

Drive up the Coast to Boothbay Harbor and visit:

Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens

Boothbay Railway Village

Maine State Aquarium
