KHC Foundation sets record scholarship awards

The Kansas Horse Council Foundation held a ceremony to present $11,250.00 in scholarship awards on June 9th in Wamego. Rep. Tom Moxley was present to present the awards along with Dale and Bob Clore of the Weary Family Foundation.

The Kansas Horse Council Foundation was founded in 2003 to encourage higher education for individuals involved in the equine industry. Since that time, over $80,000 in scholarships have been distributed. Funding for the awards is raised through a Silent Auction held each February at EquiFest of Kansas. This was the first year two Weary Family Foundation scholarships were awarded through KHCF in the amount of $2500 each to the top male and female candidates. Winners of these prestigious awards are Molly Jaax of Wichita and Antonio Ramonda-Pruitt of Topeka.

Scholarship application information is available on the Kansas Horse Council website, www.kansashorsecouncil.com.

Applications are due each year by April 1st.

Sedgwick County leading in horse plate sales

Sedgwick County is leading the way in tag sales!

Of the 305 horse tags that have been sold since Jan. 1, over 10% were sold in Sedgwick County.

Show you support the Kansas equine industry by displaying this tag on your vehicles and trailers.

When you renew your tags, take your old tag with you and trade it in for the horse tag. Just ask for it!

The $30 annual fee goes directly to the Kansas Horse Council to fulfill our mission of providing the Kansas equine industry with leadership and direction through education, promotion and public

Torey is a 16 hand 2002 Thoroughbred mare. Torey came to the rescue following a seizure in 2011. She had a foal but was too emaciated to produce milk. She has thrived in her time at Hope in the Valley and is ready for her forever home. She would make a good companion horse but has an old chest wall injury that prevents her from being ridden.

Ask the Expert --
Helmets: To wear ... or not to wear?

In equine circles, breeds and riding disciplines everywhere, people are hot about helmets and whether their use should be mandatory, discretionary, or prohibited. Participants in western, rodeo and saddle seat competitions argue that tradition makes mandatory helmet use "objectionable, a perspective reinforced by the show judge placings which either objectively, or subjectively, discount appearance points when a helmet appears.
