

Doctrine of Atonement

Golden Text | Hebrews 7:19 the

. . . the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

Responsive Reading | Hebrews 10:1, 4, 5, 9, 15–17 the, 22 (to the), 23, 24

1 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

15 . . . the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, . . .

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:
