

QUEEN
CHURCH

60 QUEEN EAST

A DAZZLING NEW CONDOMINIUM

---

Rising at the northwest corner of Queen and Church, this striking new condominium soars 57 storeys from a podium of preserved vintage buildings. Queen Church is a showcase of innovative contemporary style, with interiors by renowned IIBYIV Design. Right in the heart of Toronto's most historic district, this modern community pays respect to the treasured past — and connects you to unparalleled neighbourhood amenities. Just steps from the Yonge subway line, Queen Church offers a direct route to any destination in the city.

WE ARE CONNECTED

Located in one of Toronto's most historic neighbourhoods, Queen Church is an ambitious accomplishment by Tridel and Bazis, a towering new edifice destined to become a downtown landmark.

Rosario Varacalli has envisioned a modern tower anchored by a podium that preserves irreplaceable historic buildings.

RIGHT AROUND THE CORNER

With its backdrop of the architecturally definitive Toronto City Hall, Nathan Phillips Square hosts concerts, events and markets.

Now one of the most recognizable Toronto Instagram images, the Toronto sign faces out onto a pond that becomes a skating rink in winter.

THIS EMPORIUM HOSTS WEEKEND FARMER'S MARKETS FOR JUST-PICKED BERRIES AND FARM EGGS LAID JUST MINUTES AGO.

OVER TIME, POPULAR SPOTS FOR MUSIC, FOOD, AND ARCHITECTURE IN DOWNTOWN TORONTO HAVE BECOME EMBEDDED IN THE COLLECTIVE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE CITY — CREATING A UNIQUE URBAN DESTINATION WHERE MEMORIES ARE MADE.

For a succulent Porterhouse, New York Strip, Bone-in or Fillet Steak dinner, Hy's is the real deal — with traditional and modern takes on this favourite classic.

Two of the most famous buildings in Old Toronto: The Gooderham Building (left), built in 1891, is an excellent example of the era's Flat Iron style. Massey Hall, built in 1894, was recently renovated and is once again hosting live performances.
