

TYLER DACHENHAUSEN GETS IT DONE, DEAK TRIUMPHANT

The roller coaster of temps in the Catskill region of NY have finally seemed to settle into a more reasonable temperature range. Hot temps on Saturday afternoon provided a slick track for feature time.

Tyler Dachenhausen had a good bead on it though. Mac Crawson would be on point with Steve Kammer on the outside. Kammer and Ed dachenhausen (4th) would freight train the outside groove taking the top two spots by the end of lap one. The two would show the way before they had contact, bringing out the yellow with just six circuits in the books. Meanwhile, Tyler had worked his way up to the third position before the yellow, and would inherit the lead, never to relinquish it for the 20 lap main. John Cote had quietly worked his way up to second, with Ed Dachenhausen, working his way back up to the final podium spot. Fred Nees and Steve Kammer would round out the top five.

In the JUMP Roadside Assistance Nascar Street Stocks, the upfront race long battle would be a barn burner. Bill Deak Sr, and George Van Arsdall, put on a tough side by side battle in the heat race, with Van Arsdall winning that battle from the outside, and they were lined up together for the feature. While Van Arsdall tried the outside numerous times, the smooth Deak would prevail, with Van Arsdall settling for second, Chet Stanton, Phil Funcheon, and Scott Sepe would be the top five.

East Coast TQs were in the house on Saturday for the annual Pine Brook Reunion Night, with Jasper Zeigafuse taking the honors in the PenNy Midget feature over Tyler Wagner, Jay Hentrich, Charles Schultz, and Don Zrinski.

Eugene Drew would bag his second feature of the season in the Pedersen's Checker Won INEX Legends from the sixth starting spot over Brad Lowmaster, Jack Polan, Kevin Boylan, and Joe Przybylinski Sr.

In 4cyl action, Dan Curry wouyld win the Modified 4cyl class and Aiden Fabien getting his fist win in Novice.

Leland Oelelein would continue his dominance in INEX Bandoleros, while Easton Houghtaling was back to his winning ways in the Beginner class.

Bethel Motor Speedway will be have no racing the Fourth of July weekend, but come back with two of their biggest events of the year on the same night! The Ronnie Welsch Memorial Street Stock race for $3000 guaranteed to win, and the annual LegendStock for INEX Bandoleros on July 9th.
