FIRST AID FOR EGOS

Are your feelings easily hurt? The phone call didn't come? Someone forgot your birthday? You weren't invited to some event? Everyone gets their ego bumped now and then. What matters is how the bruise is handled. Disappointments can help one to develop character and charm.

Every time you resist the temptation to feel sorry for yourself you increase your stature. Every time you refuse to whine or sulk you improve your personality. Every time you demonstrate that you have what it takes to rise above such situations you gain the silent respect of others.

In these situations, try to do these things. First, keep control of your tongue; resist the perfectly natural impulse to pour abuse on the heads of those to blame for your disappointment. Second, if you must nurse your injured feelings, do it in private, even though you might now enjoy it as much. Third, pray for God to help you deal with the situation and to help you forgive. Finally, resolve that you will do your best never to bring that kind of unhappiness to anyone else, and mean it. Remember, we all are guilty from time to time of being imperfect in our treatment of other's feelings. Show grace and mercy to those in your life. Who knows, it might be you who needs the same next time.

Welcome to Lomax!

A special welcome to our guests!

We are glad to have you visiting with us today! You are welcome here. We know you have a choice of where to worship, and you chose to be with us today — thank you.

At Lomax we want to be the church we read about in the Bible. Our goal is to glorify God with our worship and with our lives and to point people to Jesus Christ.

If you need anything during the service, ushers in the lobby can direct you to restrooms, the nursery, or a telephone. Please do us the favor of filling out a blue card located on the back of the pew in front of you. Primetimer singing trip as I predicted in last week's bulletin we had a wonderful time lots of fellowship and laughter. A funny happened I want to share. I had over and over stated we would leave at 9 stressing go straight to the bus. Well about midway thru the singing someone on my row needed out, so I got up. When I got up some of our Primetimers thought it was the cue time to leave. A wrestling match took place as the wife tried to pull the husband back down into the seat to keep him from leaving. It was very comical to witness and of course I would never mention Joyce and Speedy's names.

It is good to laugh. We have such a good time on our trips and events. So glad we are able to laugh at ourselves and kid gently with each other. Prov. 17:22 "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones."

National Thoughtful Day you know how every day is a national something or another. Well, it just so happens today is National Thoughtful Day. A day we can demonstrate how we value each other. As Christians we don't need a national day to remind us 1st Thess. 5:11 "Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing." Romans 12:13 "Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality."

May we continue to let each other know how much we value your presence.
