Landowners in De Luz Through the Years

The beginning time is unknown that the Luiseño Native Americans lived in the area
 1769 Spanish explorers and settlers arrived in San Diego
 1798 Mission an Luis Rey established
 1841 Rancho Santa Margarita y Las Flores by grant of the Mexican government was for 133,441 acres north of the San Luis Rey de Francia Mission
 1846 Santa Rosa Rancho granted to Juan Moreno
 1846 Monserate Rancho granted to Ysidro Maria Alvarado, 13,322 acres lying along the San Luis Rey River
 No accurate surveys were made by the Spanish owning these lands. A large wedge of land from Fallbrook district to Rainbow and De Luz was outside of the Spanish land grants. After the Mexican-American war this area was settled mostly by homesteaders, or maybe a squatter or claim jumper.
 Jose De Luz a Spanish vaquero had a corral for stock, this was probably the source of the name De Luz
 Basque shepherds grazed sheep but made no permanent dwelling or claim to the land
 1861 Mr. Spring squatted on land near Fern Creek and the warm springs
 1881 Lemon Judson built a four bedroom house at the warm mineral springs
