

Brush fire victim dies

FALLBROOK — An elderly De Luz man who was severely burned in a two-acre brush fire along Cottonwood Creek near here died yesterday in a San Bernardino county hospital.

The county coroner's office identified the victim as George Grodley, whose age was believed to be about 70.

Grodley was rescued by state Division of Forestry fire fighters yesterday afternoon. He suffered third-degree burns over 30 per cent of his body and a possible heart attack.

Cause of the fire is under investigation.
