

Three families for the past week have been looking around for land to settle upon in the vicinity of Fallbrook. Little by little people are creeping into this neighborhood, and Fallbrook has received a large proportion during the past few years.

We understand that there are some parties in the Cortal de Lutz, near this place, who have gone quite extensively into the business of burning charcoal; they took 150 sacks of that article to San Diego a few days ago.

The gang of Chinamen who have been working at Cassen's camp, on the railroad, have gone to Temecula to swell the force of Geddes and Galbraith. This will so increase the number of laborers on that division that it will not be long before the grade will be ready for rail.
