New Fire Breaks Out In Escondido Area

state fire crews in San Diego and Riverside counties early today had three of four fires which raged yesterday under control after approximately 3800 acres were blackened. Arriving during the night to assist on a fire in the De Luz area which has blackened 1500 acres, were 50 men from the Angeles forest. Due today are 60 men from Lompoc, in central California.

Fires reported checked and the acreages burned are those which raged at San Pasqual valley, 150 acres; Temecula valley, 1800 acres, and the Barona Indian reservation, 350 acres.

Imperiling 10 ranches and destroying three cabins, the De Luz fire, 10 miles west of Fallbrook, spread across the county line into Riverside county. The Temecula valley fire, 15 miles northwest of Fallbrook, is on the county line. Names of the owners of the three cabins destroyed have not been learned by state forestry officials.
