Oceanside Rancher Reports Sale of
Enormous Plants for Holiday Use.

Special to The Union

OCEANSIDE, Dec. 5. — R. J. Garner, a rancher of the fertile De Luz canyon between Oceanside and Fallbrook, off the line of the Santa Fe Railway, reported today that he has a big crop of enormous California brakes in the best condition possible for the Christmas decorations. Some of the plants are nine feet long.

Garner recently sold $75 worth of the ferns to Hotel del Coronado for decorative purposes and finds no trouble disposing of all he can produce. He says he has some beautiful spots on his De Luz ranch that might be utilized in the making of motion pictures. He is trying to interest the management of motion picture companies in this plan.
